

ROWAYTON ARTS CENTER

Now offering Art Parties!

Looking for a unique place to have a party? The Rowayton Arts Center is located on the shores of the Five Mile River in the beautiful seaside town of Rowayton, Ct. The studio has vaulted ceilings, skylights and gorgeous views of the river. Plenty of space to spread out, to be creative, have fun and to learn a little something too!

Choose from one of the following themes:

Little Picasso - Guests will be treated to their own easels, canvas and paints and guided through a series of steps to help them create their own masterpieces.

It's a Tweet - There will be materials galore to help kids create one of kind birdhouse. Whether they use paint, found objects, paper, or fabric to decorate their homes, they're bound to come home with a real tweet!

Flower Power - Using felt, other fabrics and decorations, guests will create magnificent flower wall hangings. Big or small, these creations will add color and pizzazz to any décor.

Model Magic - Kids will have a blast sculpting zany creatures and habitats out of this creative modeling compound that is easy to form and fun to work with. Let your imagination go wild!

All parties are 2 hours in length and are offered on weekends and Fridays after school. The cost is $400 for 12 guests ($25 for each additional guest). The cost includes facility, instructor and art materials. Parents are responsible for refreshments and decorations. Please call the office to reserve your time (203)866-2744.
